

To Victory Prison Worker...

Hey brother, I'm, doing well with the end of my prison sentence coming to a close day by day. So far, my release date is 6/7/19, but with 2-3 months more of gain time also being prorated, I'll be out around 4/26/19.

I have been learning, growing, and coming to know that I will overcome this next obstacle that is going to occur in my life. I have been getting involved with a church, bible study there. Also, Gavel Club and I'm going to be giving a speech in Gavel Club as well as black history month program. I have had some true breakthroughs in here, too so I'm stoked about it, I have had the honor and chance to reach a few men in here whom we have made friends in Christ and some who wanna learn about God lately, especially since/when my envelope from Victory Church with a new or my previous study with a note in the back encouraging me more. Daily growth in the Lord is greater than none at all and I'm so happy for how far, as well as my growth in my faith over these last nine months. Thank you so much as well as your team. They truly are a blessing to all around them.

I do hope my family will look past as well as forgive me for my mistakes and heartbreaks I've caused lately. Also, that they truly see me as a changed man for good. I feel like I'm a changed man. Yes I still have thoughts, urges, and ants/lusts for things but I'm doing what I need to change that.

I am on 8 of 30 Bible studies so far. It's been great doing them and learning the hardest part is sending them. I have no stamps and envelopes but it works out somehow, especially since I was getting money when I had started coming to prison.

Truly your friend/brother in Christ and always, can't wait to hear back.

Sincerely,
