FIVE STEP PROCESS

1. Victory prison ministry team members will pass out and collect Bible study enrollment forms at the services or enrollment can be initiated in at Central County Jail Administrative offices.
2. A list will be made for a volunteer to print studies at a designated workstation at the Central County Jail in Bartow. (Printing and distribution will be twice monthly)
3. Printed study will then be delivered internally by Jail administration.
4. Inmate/student will complete the study and mail back to Victory Church.
5. Once studies are completed, returned, and received by Victory Church, the next study in the series will be queued and printed on the next scheduled print day and then delivered by jail administration.
6. If continuing at home, studies will be processed and mailed accordingly.

Bible studies may be requested by family members of inmates themselves by sending in a request with name, address and date of birth to Victory Prison Ministries, 1401 Griffin Rd., Lakeland, FL 33810
